What does success look like?

Integrated activities around a shared vision

A regional approach for building towards a statewide infrastructure

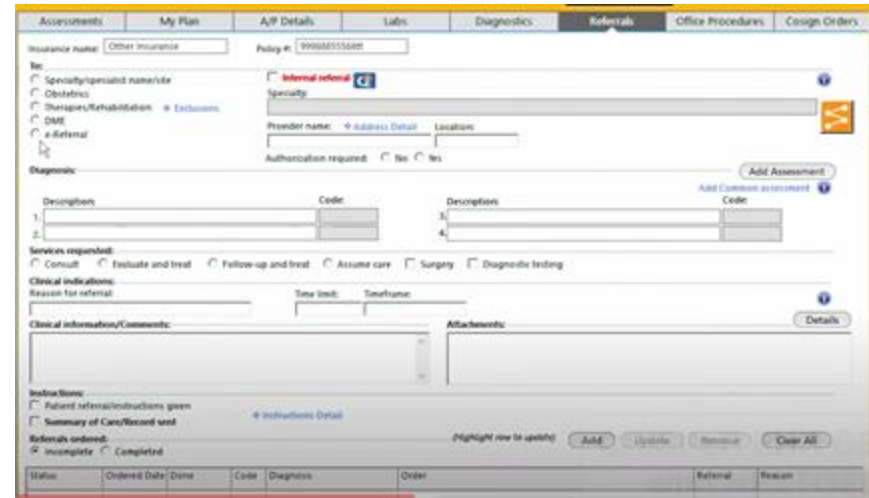

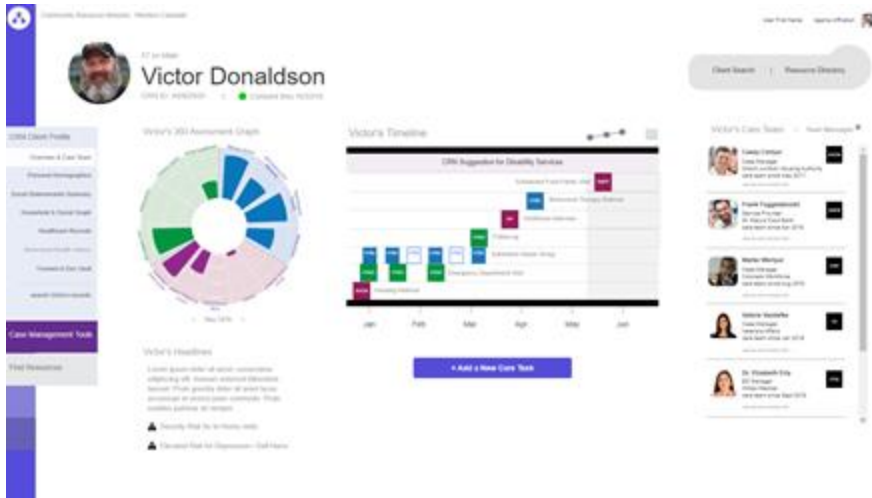

Common data standards and a centralized community resource inventory

A process for leveraging funding resources and public/private partners

Examples of Referral Tools and Integrations

The screenshot shows a web-based form for creating an electronic referral. The form is divided into several sections: "Insurance" (with fields for "Other Insurance" and "Policy #"), "Referral" (with fields for "Specialty/physician name/rta", "Specialty", "Preorder number", "Address Detail", and "Location"), "Diagnosis" (with a table for "Description", "Code", and "Description"), "Services requested" (with checkboxes for "Consult", "Evaluate and treat", "Follow-up and treat", "Assume care", "Surgery", and "Diagnostic testing"), "Clinical indications" (with a "Reason for referral" field and "Time limit" and "Timeframe" fields), "Clinical information/Comments" (with a large text area), and "Attachments" (with a "Details" button). At the bottom, there is a table with columns for "Status", "Ordered Date", "Date", "Code", "Diagnosis", "Order", "Referral", and "Reason".

COLORADO OPEN RECORDS ACT/SUNSHINE LAW

LEEANN MORRILL, FIRST ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL & GENERAL COUNSEL TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

- Sunshine Law generally requires any state or local governmental body to discuss public business or to take formal action in meetings that are open to the public.
- eHealth Commission meetings are considered a State public body
- Must be open meetings of 2 or more members at which public business is to be discussed or at which formal action may be taken
- Executive Sessions are limited to matters that must be kept confidential according to state and federal laws.
- Workgroups provide recommendations to the Office and eHealth Commission. These workgroups are not subject to open meetings but may be subject to open records.

- As a state entity, OeHI is subject to open records and communication with workgroup and eHealth Commission may be subject.
- OeHI follows the Governor/Lt. Governor email retention policy. Emails are deleted after 30 days unless flagged.
- All eHealth Commission meeting materials are posted to OeHI's website. This includes approved minutes, agendas, presentations, and other project details.
